

Jane

Words and Music by

A C#m D E
Jane, you're not so plain, no matter what the others say
A C#m D E
And when I see you around, I think of us in a bad way
Bm7 E C#m D
With goo-goo golden hair that glides upon the fickle breeze
A E A
I say Jane, oh darling Jane, you're not so plain

(A) C#m D E
Jane, I can't explain the fear your brown eyes bring to me
A C#m D E
And when you look, do I stand out or fall behind like scenery?
Bm7 E C#m D
Does the sight of me inspire a dream or just a scream?
A E A
I say Jane, oh special Jane, you're not so plain

D A E A
When you're with your friends and laughing so hysterically
D A
I'm somewhere soaking in your smile
E
Until I run away in fear the one you're laughing at is me

(A) C#m D E
Jane, oh, I'm in pain, but it's by no one's fault but mine
A C#m D E
I know that I should make a move, but still I wait for fifty signs
Bm7 E C#m D
That you won't quash these dreams that I have stacked so foolishly
A E A
I say Jane, oh lovely Jane, you're not so plain
