Words and Music by

G

Jimmy's got a new gun, Johnny's got a new gun, too

C G

And it's big, that's so

D C G

Given by his older blood welcome to the family, my bro

G

They take him on a short trip, He's trippin' like it's some sort of dream

C G

But he knows it's real

D C G

Pull the trigger, join the club, load up on the power you feel

C G

Chorus: 'Cause that's life, or so he likes to think it is

C G

That's life, they tell him that it's theirs or his

C G Em

That's life, sending bros six feet below his shoes

C D G

But next week he will be there, too, 'cause that's life

(G)

Johnny is a new man, manly at the age of fourteen

C G

And he's bad, we know

D C G

Jimmy sees him, pulls his gun, bang-bang, Johnny's head explodes

(Chorus)
